

Walmer Apartment

A perfect place to relax with views of bay and harbour

Throw open the window, enjoy the sunshine and spectacular views of the ships coming and going.....yachts racing under sail.....and the warm Tasman Bay waters stretching to the mountains beyond.

Character and charm

Whether you are planning a holiday escape, travelling for business, or visiting from overseas, we invite you to feel utterly relaxed in your own spacious, self-contained apartment in this charming late Victorian home. There are two Labrador dogs.

Independence

Only one couple has the use of the apartment at any one time. The apartment is accessed from off-street parking by an outside staircase so that you can come and go at your leisure.

Your Walmer Suite

The living room is warmly furnished with comfortable chairs, a large leather sofa, an antique dining table, a Persian rug and a large number of books and magazines. A TV, DVD player and wireless internet access are also on hand.

The sunroom also has a big range of books and magazines as well as close views of the harbour entrance.

The bedroom with its native timber rimu furniture has a queen size bed , morning sun and views up the harbour.

The kitchen comes complete with stove, microwave and dishwasher and all the utensils you need to prepare a gourmet meal.

The bathroom has a large bath and a separate shower. There is a separate toilet. The laundry is equipped with a washing machine and dryer.

Contact Information:

Phone: 035483858

Address: 7 Richardson St,
Britannia Heights, Nelson

Hosts: Robert Hart Robert and
Janet Hart

Location: 5 minutes to Nelson City
Centre and 10 minutes to airport

Directions: Drive along the Nelson waterfront until you are opposite the harbour entrance and
Richardson St veers off uphill.
Walmer is the third house on the left, a large, white two-storey house with white gates.

GPS: -41.2708237, 173.2622036

Walmer Apartment Map

