

Cambria House

Our bed and breakfast in Nelson, New Zealand, is a charming colonial homestead with modern facilities combining style, luxury and excellent service. We have six individually furnished rooms (all with ensuites), private guest lounge, a large sunny deck and secluded woodland gardens, ideal for relaxing in with a coffee or glass of Nelson wine. Breakfast is served to suit your travel arrangements, with plenty of choices available on the menu. We provide free internet access on our dedicated guest PC, or free broadband wireless in all rooms. We also provide off-street parking and if required, secure storage for your luggage while you are walking in the Abel Tasman National Park.

Cambria House is a beautifully restored Victorian villa, ideally suited for overseas or New Zealand travelers on holiday, small groups of friends getting together, or business people wanting to stay in the comfort and quiet of a bed and breakfast facility. It is situated in the inner city, in a quiet leafy street only five minutes walk from centre of Nelson, a place renowned for its arts and crafts, excellent cafés and restaurants. Come to Nelson; it is a gourmet's delight!
